

Prof. Osamu Miura has attended the 2014 grant presentation ceremony of INAMORI Foundation.

The 2014 Grant Presentation Ceremony of INAMORI Foundation was held at the Grand Prince Hotel Kyoto (Takaragaike, Sakyo-ku, Koyto) on Sunday April 13, 2014. Professor Miura has attended this ceremony for HAKURAKU* honors research grant he have chosen last year.

It was of great importance to listen to the speech of Mr. Kazuo Inamori, the Founder of KYOCERA Corporation and the President of INAMORI Foundation. He was also able to discuss and exchange information with many young researchers he met in the Banquet. This opportunity was very informative and open the way for further development in his future research.

*HAKURAKU was originally named after Chinese classical literature called “千里馬常有 而伯樂不常有”. This research grants will be provided for two consecutive years for those who have been recommended by Nomination Committee of Research Grants and approve by the board of committee.

Please refer to the following website for further details regarding INAMORI Foundation.

【INAMORI Foundation Website】

http://www.inamori-f.or.jp/ja_topics_140307.html

The 2014 Grant Presentation Ceremony of INAMORI Foundation in Grand Prince Hotel Kyoto