Call for Papers

Kuroshio Science Vol. 20, No. 1: Special Issue of 18th International Kuroshio Science Symposium on November 29-December 1, 2025 at National Sun Yat-Sen University, Kaohsiung, Taiwan

We cordially invite scientists, researchers, students and professionals from country members of the Kuroshio region, especially the participants of the 18th International Kuroshio Science Symposium to submit your manuscripts to our Kuroshio Science journal Special Issue (20-1).

Submit your manuscript for the special issue of Kuroshio Science (Vol. 20, No. 1) by 12 June, 2026 to the Editorial Board of Kuroshio Science (km03@kochi-u.ac.jp).

We have several manuscript types. For example,

Symposium Proceedings:

The presenters of the 18th International Kuroshio Science Symposium can submit this type of manuscript. In this manuscript type, short paper is OK from two-page-spread papers (printed in the journal) in addition to a full paper. We created this manuscript type to boost the presenter's submission of paper to our journal. We are waiting for your submission. For samples of published papers, see the following URL:

Research Paper/Research Note:

These papers are peer-reviewed articles. Authors who submit a paper as a research paper/note are required to suggest 4 reviewers on submission, together with their full addresses and email details. Papers without reviewer suggestions will be automatically categorized as symposium proceedings.

For details of each manuscript type, please see the "Editorial Policy and Instructions for Authors" in Vol. 18 No. 1. And please read this document carefully before submitting and formatting your manuscript. Do not hesitate to contact me if you have any question. Thank you in advance.
